

INSTITUTE OF LIFELONG LEARNING (ILLL)

The Institute of Lifelong Learning (ILLL) is dedicated to the cause of those who believe that learning is neither age-bound nor classroom-bound, but it takes place throughout life and in all kinds of situations.

The Institute has been striving to develop state-of-the-art infrastructure to help the teaching and non-teaching staff members and students of University of Delhi in capacity building in Information and Communication Technology (ICT) skills.

The Institute of Lifelong Learning (ILLL) is now on the threshold of taking significant strides towards achieving excellence in higher education.

OBJECTIVES

- Development of curriculum based multimedia content for its seamless availability to all the teachers and the students of University of Delhi.
- Setting up of a collaborative virtual learning environment for hosting content for interactions on various academic topics and issues.
- Organizing workshops, seminars and conferences for capacity building in ICT and for the faculty of University of Delhi.
- Organizing innovative and intellectually stimulating programmes of faculty development and for administrators and staff of University of Delhi and institutions of higher education.
- Fostering institutional collaborations- national as well as international- towards furthering the vision, mission and objectives of ILLL.
- Organizing life enriching, employability enhancing and career-oriented courses for the students of University of Delhi. Steady improvement in the portfolio, content and reach of such programmes for all.
- Development of capabilities of University of Delhi and Expertise on the matters pertaining to lifelong learning and ICT mediated instruction, learning and assessments.
- Education, research and training on best practices and innovations in the areas of lifelong learning and ICT-enabled instruction, learning and assessments.
- Incubating innovations in Curriculum and Content of Higher Education.
- Encouraging University-wide awareness about educational services and commitment to total quality of educational services and mentoring any initiative/s in this regard.
- Undertaking and promoting any initiative, activity or programme either on own or in collaboration with any institution- public or private, Indian or foreign- engaged in similar activities.

- To procure, own, use and dispose of any movable or immovable assets / resources/ facilities and hire/ outsource any personnel/ services in the course of performance of its functions and for the attainment of its vision, mission and objectives.

ACTIVITIES

The major activities of the Institute of Lifelong Learning (ILLL) are as follows:

(i) National Mission Education:

National Mission on Education through Information and Communication and Technology (NMEICT) is an ambitious project undertaken by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Government of India with a view to seamlessly providing quality educational content to all the eligible and willing learners in India. It has envisaged content and connectivity as the twin pedals for initiating and accelerating ICT-enabled Higher Education. ILLL sees its role in pushing the pedal of content development.

(ii) Virtual Learning Environment:

It is a unique and innovative initiative of the University of Delhi to provide a taste of the range of opportunities and tools that will be available to students and teachers on a daily basis. This framework provides a host of collaborative tools based on Web 2.0 to cope with the various needs of the teaching and learning community.

The willing learners can visit the Website for further details: www.vle.du.ac.in

COURSE MATERIAL

Institute of Lifelong Learning (ILLL) has commissioned and uploaded course material such as lessons, podcasts, self-assessment questions, laboratories and lectures by prominent scholars of University of Delhi across many disciplines. The subjects under “Open Courses” include English, Film Studies, Punjabi, Hindi, History, Physical and Life Sciences, Mathematics as well as Computer Science. Many of these are also being made available in Hindi versions. The students can use the material freely by downloading them in various formats such as HTML, PDF and Interactive (Moodle). More of these open course materials are in the process of being developed.

The students can visit the Website i.e. www.vle.du.ac.in for accessing the course material developed at the Institute of Lifelong Learning (ILLL).

CONTACT DETAILS

Head Office (North Campus)

Academic research Center, Patel Marg,
(Opposite S.G.T.B. Khalsa College)
University of Delhi-110007
Phone: 011-27667099

Website: www.illl.du.ac.in E-mail: illlearning@gmail.com

South Campus University of Delhi, South Campus

III Floor, Library building
Benito Juarez Road

New Delhi-110021
Phone: 011-24111737

UNIVERSITY INFORMATION CENTRE (UIC)